Keynote Address: His Grace, Bishop Alexander

The Right Reverend Dr. Alexander (Golitzin), Bishop of Dallas, the South and the Bulgarian Diocese, Orthodox Church in America, received his Master of Divinity degree from Saint Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary in 1973. He pursued doctoral studies at Oxford University in England under His Eminence, Metropolitan Kallistos (Ware), and was awarded his D. Phil. in 1980. He was ordained to the diaconate in 1982, to the priesthood in 1984, and was tonsured to monastic orders in 1986. He was appointed to the faculty of the Theology Department at Marquette University, Milwaukee, WI, where he taught from 1989 – 2012, achieving the rank of full Professor. While at Marquette, he was attached to Saints Cyril and Methodius Church, serving for 22 years. Bishop Alexander is a noted scholar. He has written numerous books and articles and contributed to the establishment of an Orthodox scholarly presence in Berkeley, CA (now the Patriarch Athenagoras Orthodox Institute). He was consecrated to the episcopacy on May 5, 2012, and enthroned as Bishop of Toledo and the Bulgarian Diocese. On March 29, 2016, he was elected by the Holy Synod of Bishops also to fill the vacant see of Dallas and the South. He was enthroned as Bishop of Dallas and the South on June 11, 2016.
